NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Reverence Counseling Services, LLC (RCS) is committed to protecting your privacy. RCS is required by federal law to maintain the privacy of Protected Health Information ("PHI"), which is information that identifies or could be used to identify you. RCS is required to provide you with this Notice of Privacy Practices (this "Notice"), which explains RCS's legal duties and privacy practices and your rights regarding PHI that we collect and maintain.

YOUR RIGHTS

Your rights regarding PHI are explained below. To exercise these rights, please submit a written request to RCS at the address noted below.

To inspect and copy PHI.

- You can ask for an electronic or paper copy of PHI. RCS may deny your request if it believes the disclosure will endanger your life or another person's life. You may have a right to have this decision reviewed.

To amend PHI.

- You can ask to correct PHI you believe is incorrect or incomplete. RCS may require you to make your request in writing and provide a reason for the request.
- RCS may deny your request and will send a written explanation for the denial and allow you to submit a written statement of disagreement.

To request confidential communications.

- You can ask RCS to contact you in a specific way. RCS will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.

To limit what is used or shared.

- You can ask RCS not to use or share PHI for treatment, payment, or business operations. RCS is not required to agree if it would affect your care.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask RCS not to share PHI with your health insurer.
- You can ask for RCS not to share your PHI with family members or friends by stating the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply.

To obtain a list of those with whom your PHI has been shared.

- You can ask for a list, called an accounting, of the times your health information has been shared. You can receive one accounting every 12 months at no charge, but you may be charged a reasonable fee if you ask for one more frequently.

To receive a copy of this Notice.
